

Guarantee of Financial Support (F1 Visa)

Private Sponsor

The purpose of this form is to facilitate the process of documenting financial support for an international student or scholar requesting the Certificate of Eligibility Form I-20. The College is required by law to verify that sufficient funding is available for the intended program. This form can be copied and used for multiple sponsors, if needed.

Attached Required: photocopies of documents demonstrating that the sponsor has sufficient financial means to provide support in the amount indicated on the Financial Aid Award letter issued by the school. Original financial documents should be kept for future reference or to apply for a visa.
